BOND INFORMATION FOR GUIDE LICENSE

---

You can arrange for the Surety Bond through most insurance agents. The bond should be in the generally accepted Surety Bond language and form. The basic stipulation of the bond should be to bind you as the principal, and the surety company (and their heirs, successors, etc.) jointly and severally unto the clients availing themselves of your guide services, in the sum of at least $1,000; on condition that this obligation shall be void if the principal as a guide license under Division 3, Chapter 5 of the California Fish and Game Code, and his/her employees or agents, shall truly and faithfully fulfill their responsibilities to their clients, particularly as regards to safety and welfare of the clients and the services agreed upon between the principal and his/her clients.

The bond should further stipulate that the suretyship may be terminated only upon 30 days notice by the surety company to the Department of Fish and Game, License and Revenue Branch, 3211 S Street, Sacramento, CA 95816 and that termination of the obligation shall not affect any liability incurred or accrued prior to the effective date of such termination. No guide license will be issued without proof of having bond coverage which is valid for the full term of the license, February 1, 2004 through January 31, 2005.

A cash deposit in lieu of a bond is not acceptable.
